

12-18-2021
Goo Internship

To whom it may concern,

As a motivated, innovative Software Developer, the Internship opportunity with Google motivated me to apply immediately. When reading through your goals for this position, I was excited to see that my skillset, experiences, and core values match up with your company's needs and mission.

I bring a unique set of skills that will allow me to immediately thrive at Google. My collection of experiences also differentiates me from other candidates because I have led and provided value in many different environments. My technology experience is vast and I'm eager to learn more.

I am passionate about making an impact at your company through my ability to solve complex problems and establish meaningful connections with others. Please call me at 765-592-0154 or send me an email at zacharyniehoff@outlook.com to schedule an interview at your earliest convenience.

Best regards,
Zachary Niehoff